Position Summary

The Fresh Air Fund is currently recruiting Friendly Towns Program Interns to work within our Friendly Towns department beginning in May 23rd through mid-August!

Friendly Towns is a signature program area for FAF from the organization's historical roots. Traditionally, Fresh Air children are recruited from communities across New York City and welcomed into the homes of volunteer Host Families across 14 states from North Carolina and Virginia to Maine and Vermont, and into southern Canada for a one-week visit. A robust network of over 400 Volunteers serves as key ambassadors and program partners in communities. These Volunteers serve as Fund Representatives, Chairs, and Committee Members, working to support and develop their local Friendly Towns, and as such, are responsible for the Friendly Towns program at the local level. These Volunteers recruit new volunteer Host Families, interview prospective families, support local outreach and marketing opportunities, and support the summer season when FAF children visit the area. The Friendly Towns Volunteers are supported by a team of professionals in NYC's FAF offices.

For Summer 2022, the Friendly Towns program will be operating on a limited basis. The focus will be on reconnecting returning experiences, youth returning to visit their same host families from previous summers within geographical areas 3 hours driving distance from NYC.
