Position Summary

The Fresh Air Fund has a history of providing leadership training and career awareness for teens throughout its many summer and year-round programs. In 2020, The Fund designed our Summer Teen Academy as a stipend-based model, through which teens ages 13-17 will be offered specialized programs with opportunities to earn credentials, gain valuable job/career readiness skills, and participate in internships thereby obtaining real world, work experience. The credentialing programs are being offered in partnership with universities and nonprofits. The program will employ counselors who guide and participate alongside teen participants during their participation and support faculty and staff of partner organizations.

The Fresh Air Fund is seeking an organized, creative, and supportive individual with excellent communication skills to serve as Program Coordinator in our Summer Teen Academy. The Job Readiness Training program is modeled after The Fund's long-standing Career Awareness Program, as well as the Leaders-In-Training and Counselor-In-Training programs. The JRT program provides participants with opportunities to explore vast career opportunities, gain skills necessary to successfully enter the work-world, and focuses on the social-emotional skills necessary for successful secondary school participation and beyond.

The Internship program includes The Fund's long-standing Counselor-in-Training (CIT) program, as well as a cohort of Journalism interns, who will capture and report on The Fund's summer.
